12 By all means, let Mr Chokkanna be now invested with 1st class powers as recommended. I have already said so in my note of the 26th ultimo. It is unnecessary to compare his case with that of certain other officers recently given 1st class powers. Each officer's case has to be judged in such matters on its own merits. In Mr Chokkanna's case, the Chief Court had once its misgivings but I am glad it has now none. He is certainly a capable officer. I have already approved of the draft which may now issue if the Dewan is agreeable. I am not, in spite of the Chief Court's recommendation, that Mr Chokkanna should have a longer period of trial." Q
